5. Trees and labels

A shelter-belt of new woodland is being planted at Dorset Downs, which will be an important landscape feature along the ridgetop. As part of the long-term management of the burial ground, we are planting a variety of native species. These are guarded by tree tubes and bespoke timber surrounds to protect the young trees from wildlife and give them the best start in life.

If you would like to dedicate the tree to the memory of someone, a tree label with their name, a message and their date of birth - date of death will be produced and placed next to the tree inside the wooden cage. The tree labels will be displayed for an initial period of 10 years (due to the projected lifespan of the materials).

After 10 years, the cages will be removed as the tree should be well established by then. You will have the option to purchase a new label or dedicate an oak plaque in the shelter for them. In the unlikely event that labels suffer from vandalism, theft, accidental or malicious damage, these will be replaced at cost.

6. How we use your personal data and updates

Personal data you supply will be used to confirm the purchase and to register rights sold at the burial ground. We may also use it for statistical analysis. We would like to contact you about future changes at the burial ground and any new options that might become available. If you agree to being contacted this way please tick the relevant boxes: Email Post Phone

We will not share your data with other organisations. You can withdraw your consent at any time. You may miss out on essential communications if you don't opt-in but we respect your choices if you decline. Further information www.leedam.com/privacy-policy
